

So then I go to the Legislature and I get the Legislature to enact legislation that favors the big jobbers and the big operators knowing that the aim and the ultimate result is to drive people like Senator Hefner out of business. He would scream, pardon me, Senator Smith, for stealing your illusion, he would scream louder than a hog with his nose stuck under the gate, I think I said it right. So when you look at your own...too many metaphors...look at your own ox being gored, then you take a more realistic and direct interest. I am opposed to Senator Marsh's bill because, as I have said on...I mean her amendment, it sugarcoats that which no matter how you sugarcoat it, how you attempt to scent it, whatever you may call it, is that substance which if you drive between Omaha and Lincoln and see a freshly plowed field, you can smell three miles away.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator DeCamp. The other lights went off so it won't be necessary but thank you. The question is...Senator Marsh, would you like to close?

SENATOR MARSH: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I think this probably is a good chance to have a vote on the bill itself. If you are supportive of the bill, I trust you would be supportive of the amendment. If you are not supporting the bill, then don't adopt the amendment.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question is the adoption of the Marsh amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted that wish to on the Marsh amendment? Please vote if you care to. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 10 nay, Mr. President, on the adoption of Senator Marsh's amendment.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Marsh's amendment is adopted. May I interrupt just a second to state that LB 113, having been returned by the Governor with his objections thereto, and after reconsideration having been passed by the Legislature by the Constitutional majority, has become law this 20th day of March, 1985. Do you have anything else on the bill, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Yes, sir. If I might, right before that, Mr. President, the Banking Committee reports LB 135 to General File with amendments, LB 296 to General File with amendments, and 297 to General File with amendments, all
